Follow-up application – working hours or other changes during an application period

You can fill in an application for earnings-related allowance in eWertti eService by clicking "Apply for earnings-related allowance". The system will automatically determine which type of application should be submitted.

First, you will see the last day that has been processed, as well as your previous application period.

Your application period is shown under "Application period information". You are able to edit the dates by clicking "Edit".

If you have worked during your application period, select "During the application period I have been mainly: Employed". Under "Besides, I have been (you can select several choices)" you can also report days during which you have been Unemployed. Possible Paid sick leave days should also be reported.

If you have several employers, report them separately.

Click "Continue".

A calendar will appear. Now, you are able to list all working days and hours, as well as report information regarding the remaining days.

By clicking the question mark (?) next to the text "Application period information" you will find more information on how to report daily values.

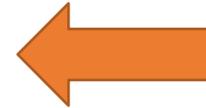

After reporting all information, click "Finish".

In case you forget to report one or more daily values, the "Finish" button remains inactive, and the system will let you know what information is missing.
